SIXTEENTH YEAR

GETTYSBURG, PA., TUESDAY, JUNE 18th, 1918.

PRICE TWO CENTS

SELECT MEN FOR NATIONAL ARMY

Forty Eight will Leave Gettysburg for Camp Lee on Thursday of Next Week.

TO FOLLOW USUAL ROUTE

Only Thirty One Left in First Class after Next Contingent Leaves. Eleven from Town.

Fifty seven men have been summoned by the Adams County draft board to appear here on the morning of Thursday, June 27th. Forty eight of the number will be sent to Camp Lee at Petersburg, Virginia, on the train leaving Gettysburg at 4:38 in the afternoon. They will follow the usual route through Washington, traveling all night, and being due to arrive in camp about eight o'clock the next morning.

In the number are eleven men from Gettysburg, probably the largest contingent from the town to go at any one time since the draft was put into operation.

Not taking into account the men who have been held back for farm work, there will be only thirty one names on the Class I list after next week's contingent leaves. The questionnaires are all ready to be sent out to the 1918 class as soon as instructions are received to mail them. The work of classifying the men will follow at once and an appreciable addition to the Class I men is expected.

The local board does not believe that there will be many additions to Class I here through reclassifying the men who were married since May 18, 1917.

The following have been summoned on the call for June 27th:

- 1202, C. A. McKonley, Hanover, Route 6, farmer.
- 1566, Nevin P. Mehning, Littlestown, carriage trimmer.
- 1686, Earl W. Stallsmith, Gettysburg, photographer.
- 1710, Chas. B. Colestock, Hanover, tailor.
- 1724, Martin A. Klunk, McSherrystown, shoe cutter.
- 1737, Dennis C. Robinson, New Oxford, shoe buffing.
- 1748, Howard L. Harner, Gettysburg, painter.
- 1751, Edgar R. Leister, Hanover R5, bookkeeper.
- 1759, Harry M. Gise, East Berlin, farmer.
- 1767, John A. Kinneman, West Chester, bookkeeper.
- 1785, Oscar J. Rife, 510 3d street, Hanover, silk weaver.
- 1786, J. Clayton Sheely, 439 High street, Hanover, R. R. brakeman.
- 1793, Aaron W. Kauffman, East Berlin R1, teacher.
- 1801, Clarence P. Groft, Hanover R5, shoemaker.
- 1804, Wm. M. Eckert, Hunterstown, hotel mgr.
- 1825, Philip E. Herting, Broad Top, Huntingdon Co., Pa., teacher.
- 1842, Roy A. Pittenturf, Gettysburg, auto driver.
- 1849, John W. Pohlman, Centennial, farmer.
- 1862, Homer F. Robert, F. & M. Academy, Lancaster, Pa., teacher.
- 1877, Ernest J. Hoffman, Gettysburg, plasterer.
- 1894, Bernard A. Lawrence, Hanover R5, farmer.
- 1905, Earl E. Smith, Littlestown R4, farmer.
- 1907, Howard W. Kime, Gettysburg R10, farmer.
- 1963, Harry J. Slagle, McSherrystown, cabinet maker.
- 1965, Gerald B. Shorb, Emmitsburg, chauffeur.
- 1967, Geo. F. Smith, Gettysburg R8, factory worker.
- 1986, Claude A. Stock, New Oxford, teacher.
- 2032, B. E. Widder, Gettysburg, architect.
- 2035, Wilbur J. Stallsmith, Gettysburg, wood worker.
- 2037, Albert C. Fair, Bendersville.

FINE PLANS FOR CAMP COLT MEN

Efforts now under Way to Provide New Amusement and Comforts for them.

WILL ESTABLISH THEATRE

First Class Companies Touring Big Cantonments would then be Sent to Gettysburg.

Efforts to have a Liberty Theatre constructed at Camp Colt, to have a Hostess House opened in the town, and a Soldiers' Club established in some building in Gettysburg, were approved at a meeting held Monday afternoon by the committee appointed last year to have charge of the soldiers' recreational activities. The committee re-organized by again selecting C. W. Gardner as chairman and changing the name to "War Camp Community Service."

The Liberty Theatre, if secured, will be a semi-permanent building located in the camp. Plays and musical attractions of the very best sort would be provided for the soldiers. This idea has been followed out at the large cantonments with the greatest success and, it is believed, would be equally popular here. It is to the plays and entertainments in these theatres that the Smilage Book tickets give admittance.

The theatres are established by the Commission on Training Camp Activities upon recommendation of the camp commandant and the representative of the Foodick Commission. Captain Eisenhower and H. T. Seerist have both given their approval of the idea here and hopes are held that the request will be granted.

Last year there was no hostess house in town but the main room in the fire engine house was used for visitors who came here to see relatives in the camp. Every week scores of people now visit Camp Colt to see their sons or brothers in the service. It is the idea to have a house rented where the boys could meet their relatives with some degree of comfort and privacy, difficult under the present circumstances. The hostess house would be secured through the agency of the Young Woman's Christian Association and an application is to be made through the proper channels.

The Soldiers' Club also would have a building all its own. In this building would be located shower baths where warm water would be available for the men of Camp Colt. There would be other toilet facilities which would enable them to shave in comfort. Lounging rooms would be provided, with reading matter and games. If sufficient funds can be secured and a suitable location obtained this idea will be carried out.

To put through all the plans that are now under way will entail much expense, some of which will have to be borne locally. York and Hanover are being asked to contribute to the work, and Gettysburg will do its share for the soldiers. The major part of the expense is met through national organized activities, but some local work is necessary also.

It is estimated that a budget of about $4000 will be required to put through what is now under consideration.

FUNERAL

Services for Miss Bair in Church at New Oxford.

The funeral of Miss Irene Bair, who committed suicide Friday night will be held on Wednesday morning from the Immaculate Conception church, New Oxford. A requiem high mass will be celebrated at 9 o'clock by Rev. Fr. Shanahan. Interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery, New Oxford.

PROFITABLE DANCE

Red Cross will Reap Benefit from this Affair.

The Red Cross dance held at Glatfelter Hall Monday evening yielded a net return of about $100. This is in addition to the $25.53 from the officers' dance of Saturday night. An orchestra from Camp Colt furnished the music.

LIKELY PASS US BY

Trail Decision Goes Over to Later Meeting.

Final decision as to the route for the Susquehanna Trail link between York and Harrisburg must wait for a meeting of the Board of Governors of the Susquehanna Trail Association, to be called soon. It is certain that the Dillsburg-Wellsville-Dover route will not be adopted, but indications point to Route No. 250, which takes in Emigsville, Manchester, York Haven, skirts Lewisberry and then passes through New Cumberland and Lemoyne.

$200 FIRELET

Littlestown Has Slight Blaze during Morning Hours.

Fire almost destroyed the summer kitchen at the home of Samuel Smith in Littlestown Monday morning about seven o'clock. Mrs. Smith made fire in the stove in the summer kitchen and then went out to feed the chickens, and on her return she found the interior of the kitchen ablaze. An alarm was sounded and the Littlestown firemen responded and extinguished the fire with chemicals. The loss will amount to about $200.

BAN INTER-COUNTY FLOUR SHIPMENTS

Must Get Special Permit to Buy from Other Places or Ship to them.

The shipment of flour into Adams County from points without its bounds, without first receiving permission from the local food administrator, is prohibited by an order received by Food Administrator Markley from Howard Heinz, federal food administrator for the state. The order applies equally to all other counties of the state and has been sent to county and city administrators throughout the state.

Any persons who are buying flour from parties outside of the county will, therefore, immediately get in touch with the office of the federal food administrator for Adams County, setting forth the reasons why it is necessary to get this flour, so that permission may be received from state headquarters at Philadelphia to ship this flour.

Officials express the opinion that the order is intended to promote the local consumption of flour manufactured within the state. The state administration is evidently in possession of data which fosters the belief that a sufficient supply of flour is now on hand in Pennsylvania to meet the demands of the residents of the state. The order will likely have the effect of causing the product to be sold in the immediate locality in which it is manufactured and thus avoid the concentration of large quantities in one locality, while a scarcity exists in another. In event of a district lacking a sufficient supply, permission to ship flour from a neighboring district will, no doubt, be granted readily.

FINAL ARRANGEMENTS

Food Conservation Train will be at Wolf's Warehouse.

The food conservation train which will be in Gettysburg on Friday will give demonstrations in the afternoon from 2:00 to 5:30 o'clock, and in the evening from 7:00 to 8:30, instead of at the hours formerly announced. The train will be placed on the Western Maryland siding at Wolf's Warehouse, North Stratton street.

The following ladies have been named as hostesses in addition to those from Gettysburg, Mrs. F. G. Michener, Mrs. George Rice, Mrs. C. Arthur Griest, Mrs. Arthur E. Rice, Miss Mary Peters, and Miss Cunningham.

COUNTY MARINE HURT IN ACTION

Wounded in Gallant Charge of Americans at Chateau Thierry June 6th.

FATHER HAS NOTIFICATION

Young Men Enlisted in the Service on Day United States Entered the War. Recent Letter.

A. H. Thomas, of Biglerville, this morning received a telegram from Washington stating that his son, William Benton Thomas, of the Marine Corps, had been seriously wounded in action on June 6th. The message said that it was difficult to get prompt details about individuals but that the family would be notified as soon as other particulars were received.

It was on June 6th that the United States Marines made their brilliant dash against the Germans at Chateau Thierry, smashing through the enemy lines on a two mile front and penetrating for a similar distance. It was the biggest action in which Americans had taken part and was a complete success from its launching until its final objective was reached. It is presumed that Thomas was in the attacking party and that he fell fighting for his country in the charge.

Three new divisions of German troops were unable to stay the Marines' advance but the ground was gained at the cost of a number of American lives, while many others were wounded. The Biglerville man was one of these.

William Benton Thomas enlisted on April 6th, 1917, the very day that the United States declared war on Germany. He went across with large bodies of Marines. The last letter received from him came several weeks ago. It was dated April 25th and he said that he had been in the trenches for three weeks. He said that he expected to be home for a time at least next fall.

The young Marine's father is living, but his mother is dead. Members of the family hope and trust that the skill of the American surgeons will bring him back to health and that he will be able to resume his duties and finally return home safe.

SOLDIERS' HOPES GONE

Railroad Rate Order Applies Only to Men Traveling on Furlough.

The hopes of Adams County's soldier boys at Camp Meade of more frequent visits home over Saturday and Sunday, which were inflated by the McAdoo order, which announced a rate of one cent per mile for soldier travelers, have been shattered to bits. The announcement, as it was made, was generally understood to apply to all men leaving camp, and immediately all the soldiers had visions of coming home every Sunday. But now it has been learned that the order, providing for the one cent per mile rate in no way applies to men leaving camp on a pass for a visit to their homes for the week-end.

The whole matter hinges on the difference between a furlough and a pass, which is a real difference. A pass entitles the holder to leave camp for a short time, rarely more than forty-eight hours. A furlough gives the holder permission to leave camp for a period of days. The furlough is granted to individual men, and not to units, like the pass, and is extremely hard to obtain.

Consequently, the men at the camp are confronted with the newly-increased rates.

THREE HAVE COMMISSIONS

Sons of Dr. J. B. Morris are Lieutenants.

With the appointment on Monday of J. Theodore Morris as a second lieutenant in the Radio Section of the Aviation Corps, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Morris now have three sons who are commissioned officers.

First Lieutenant George Morris is stationed at Washington as an instructor in the Radio School. He is in the Signal Corps. First Lieutenant Walter Morris is on the regimental staff of the 54th Infantry.

Lieutenant Theodore Morris is now stationed at Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

LAWYERS IN OVERALLS

Relieve Congestion and Lift Embargo at One City.

George Louis Eppler Esq., and Paul L. Hitchens Esq., two Cumberland attorneys who attended Gettysburg College and have many friends here, figure in a dispatch from the Maryland city to-day which tells how ten lawyers composed the first squad of men who cleared up a freight congestion there. The dispatch says:

"Clad in overalls, with sleeves rolled up to the elbow and shirts thrown open at the neck, ten lawyers, who comprised the first gang to assist in the work of unloading freight at the freight house of the B. & O. R. R., reported at one o'clock yesterday afternoon, and a few minutes later each had been supplied with trucks and was hauling out of the cars incoming freight and assorting it as to its destination beyond Cumberland."

"The second squad, which went on at 3:30 o'clock, was composed of the mayor of the city, a clergyman, and a number of business men."

"The result of their work was that Freight Superintendent George R. Bramble last night announced that the freight embargo had been lifted against Cumberland."

HIGHER PENSIONS COME THIS FALL

Local Veterans will Get Better Checks Beginning with October.

Adams County Civil War veterans who will receive increased pensions under the provisions of the bill recently passed by Congress and signed by the President, will not benefit from the larger allotments until October. This is due to the large amount of clerical work necessary to compute the sums due the soldiers.

The law became effective too late to include the increases in the checks for July 4, but they will be added to the next quarterly payment.

The act provides $30 per month for soldiers and sailors of any age who served ninety days and less than six months in the Civil War, and were honorably discharged. Those who are seventy-two years of age, or over, and served six months, will receive $32 per month; one year, $35 per month; one and a half years, $38 per month, and two years or over, $40 per month.

Pensioners now on the rolls under act of May 11, 1912, will be granted this increase of pension without application on their part. Soldiers and sailors of the Civil War pensioned at lower rates under some law other than the act of May 11, 1912, must file an application under said act to receive the benefits of the new law.

FIVE GRADUATED AT LOCAL SCHOOL

Xavier Hall Prettily Decorated for Annual Exercises of Commencement.

THE HONORS AND PRIZES

Proficiency in Various Studies Gets Recognition. Rev. Fr. Scanlon Made Address.

Five graduates received their diplomas and an interesting program was rendered at the annual commencement exercises of St. Francis Xavier School on Monday evening. Xavier Hall was prettily decorated with flowers and the class colors, lavender and gold, were also prominent.

Rev. W. F. Boyle presented the diplomas to the class, Leo Albert Dillman, Charles Emanuel Myrick, Clement Anthony Redding, Ruth Anna Smith, and Ruth Miriam Stock.

The program was opened by the singing of Gounod's "Praise Ye the Father", by the children of the schools. Charles Myrick gave the salutatory and an essay "Education apart from Study". Ruth Smith, Anna Dillon, and Martha Irvin played "Il Trovatore", and all the children of the schools joined in singing a medley of American patriotic songs.

Other musical numbers were an instrumental trio by Helen Cunningham, Gertrude Felix and Emma Neely, a sacred quartet with Joseph Hoffman singing the solo; an instrumental trio by Rose Smith, Helen Cunningham and Ruth Irvin; a duet by Margaret Allison and Ethel Grace Allison; chorus, Boys' Class; and the singing of the Star Spangled Banner by the school and audience.

The valedictory, "The Launching of the Ships", was delivered by Ruth Smith.

The Indian club swinging by the physical culture class was again interesting, and a special feature on the program was the singing of "A Baby's Prayer at Twilight" by the 12-year-old boy soprano, Edmund Hartnett.

Rev. W. F. Boyle presented the diplomas and announced the honors; and the address to the graduates was made by Rev. Matthew Scanlon, of Fairfield, who gave an earnest patriotic talk urging loyalty to school, home and country.

The following certificates were awarded by the A. N. Palmer Company, of New York City:

For the ability to impart the muscular movement of business writing, a teacher's certificate was awarded to Ruth Miriam Stock.

For the attainment of excellence in rapid muscular movement business writing diplomas were awarded to Ruth

MARINES' BIG LIST

All Wounds in this Action Severe. Seventy Two Dead.

(By Telegraph)

Washington, June 18—Evidence of the sharp fighting of the Marines in the neighborhood of Chateau Thierry is seen by the casualty list made public by the Marine Corps headquarters to-day. It contains 103 names, divided as follows: 45 killed in action, 15 dead previously reported severely wounded, 12 dead from wounds, and 31 severely wounded. The Pennsylvanians in the list:

Killed in action: Samuel H. Thayer, Bellevue; Charles W. Hewyett Jr., Philadelphia.

Dead from wounds: Private Harold B. Atkins, Philadelphia; Adam J. Miller, Shenandoah; John E. Rusch, Easton; Corporal J. L. Weppeler, Pittsburgh.

Wounded severely: Private Joseph R. Caldwell Jr., Pittsburgh; John W. Seaman, Bowerton; William B. Thomas, Biglerville.

ITALIAN LINES STILL HOLDING

Austrians Unable to Gain except at Two Points. Have Used Entire Force.

USED A BLINDING SMOKE

And then Threw Pontoon Bridges across Piave where they Made their Principal Gains.

(By Cable)

Rome, June 18—The Italians continue to check the Austrian advance in bloody encounters. The enemy now has footings at only two points on the southern bank of the Piave. A statement issued at headquarters at midnight last night said:

"A successful counter-offensive was launched to-night on the Lower Piave. The Austrians, exhausted by the British, French, and Italian counter-attacks in the North, have failed to start any infantry actions."

"An important action developed south of Montello and two encounters took place in the neighborhood of Fossalta, on a three mile front, east of Treviso, but elsewhere enemy attempts were repulsed."

"Between Candellu and Masserada, an attempt to cross the Piave was bloodily repulsed."

"An encounter on the Lower Piave resulted successfully to us."

London, June 18—Fourteen bridges were thrown across the Piave by the Austrians, semi-official dispatches received here state. But there is a sufficient force to check their advance, Rome reports. The situation is most encouraging.

Geneva, June 18—The greatest gains the Austrians made on the Piave were at the principal crossings where they established bridgeheads. They blinded the Italian infantry and airplanes with dense smoke clouds that were hurled across the water. Back of this fog, the patrols crossed in boats, dragging pontoons after them. The re-enforcements crossed rapidly on these pontoons and were soon actively engaged.

Amsterdam, June 18—Dispatches from Vienna indicate that the Germans are co-operating with the Austrians on the Piave line. Emperor Karl is said to be there in person.

Rome, June 18—It is known that practically the entire effective strength of the Austrian army has been thrown into the present offensive yet they have progressed at only two points, making slight gains compared with the objects assigned to them. Captured documents and the statements of prisoners indicate that the enemy forces were promised rich booty if they would break through.

Paris, June 18—French local actions in the Aisne Sector about Mont Gobert resulted successfully. One hundred prisoners, including two officers, were taken. Between the Oureq and the Marne our patrols took prisoners.

London, June 18—Haig reports to-day that successful British raids took place last night south of Albert and in the vicinity of Moyenneville. Patrol encounters in the vicinity of Nieppe Forest resulted in the British taking prisoners and machine guns. Hostile artillery action is reported in the Ancre Valley, south of Albert.

CASUALTY LIST

Three Pennsylvanians Mentioned in the Pershing Report.

(By Telegraph)

Washington, June 18—The War Department to-day announces a casualty list from the West Front war zone, containing forty nine names, as follows: ten killed in action, two dead from wounds, one dead in aeroplane accident, one dead from disease, and one slightly wounded. The following Pennsylvanians appear in the list:

Killed in aeroplane accident: Lieutenant Harry Walter Prince, West Philadelphia.

Dead from disease: Private Hubert F. Ward, McKeesport.

Wounded severely: Private Arthur C. Bills, Dubois.

WASHINGTON SEES AUSTRIANS FAIL

And Belief is that Italy will Retake with Great Counter Offensive.

Washington, June 18—With practically all official and unofficial reports indicating that the Austrian drive in Italy has been sharply checked by the reorganized Italian Army and the British and French units supporting it, officers here discussed the situation with an increasing air of optimism.

In some quarters it is believed that these operations may have a decided effect upon the situation on the western front. There is a strong feeling that if the Austrian drive breaks down the Italians will launch a center offensive on a large scale. In that event officials are certain that Germany would rush divisions of its troops to aid its ally because of the effect an Italian success would have upon the already turbulent internal situation in Austria.

Some officers are confident that the lack of success for the Austrians now disclosed already has resulted in a shifting of the German forces on the western front in preparation to rush divisions to the Italian front to prop up weak spots in case of a center drive. Certainly German reserves must be held for that service, it was argued, as the disorganization resulting from the failure of an attempted drive to get through is almost as demoralizing to an army as an enemy advance.

While there is any doubt in the minds of the German leaders as to the progress of events in Italy, a considerable force of German shock troops probably will be kept out of the western front fighting, and held at points in Germany where they can be hastened to Italy if needed.

BAKER APPROVES LONG SENTENCES

And Says Objectors should be Deported after the War. Not Conscientious.

Washington, June 18—Sentences ranging from 18 months to 20 years' imprisonment imposed by courts-martial upon so-called conscientious objectors who refused military service at Camp Upton, New York, and Camp Gordon, Georgia, were approved yesterday by Secretary Baker.

Most of the men objected to fighting against Germany or Austria because they have relatives there. In approving the findings of the courts, the first of the kind to reach the department, Mr. Baker went on record as favoring the return of such men "to the countries of their preference" after the war.

In approving the sentences, Secretary Baker made it plain that the War Department does not consider these men as coming within the class of conscientious objectors. Since they are not regarded as conscientious objectors, they will not have the right of a review of their cases by the special board appointed to hear appeals of such objectors.

"In my judgment," said Secretary Baker's approval, "the sentences should be executed, and, if after this war is over, some process can be devised by which these entirely undesirable citizens can be returned to the countries of their preference, it would be highly desirable from the point of view of the United States."

"I have not the least doubt as to the propriety of the procedure in these cases nor am I uncertain as to the correctness of the results reached."

Cattle and Sheep Like Tree.

In Australia cattle and sheep are fond of grazing on the foliage of the weeping she-oak or beefwood, Casuarina quadririvis, and some farmers grow it for that purpose. It thrives in California on poor, sandy soil and is a decidedly ornamental tree.

ALLIES LAUNCH DRIVE AT ENEMY

Austrians, having been Blocked in their Attack, Must now Face an Offensive.

ALLIES RE-TAKE POSITIONS

Ground Lost at Start of Enemy Drive is Recaptured at Several Places. Pressing Foe.

Rome, June 18—Not alone are the Italians and their British and French comrades in arms holding in check the Austrian offensive along the greater part of the hundred-mile battlefront from the region south-east of Trent to the Adriatic Sea, but they themselves have turned aggressors on some of the more important sectors, especially in the mountain regions.

Counter-attacks in the hill country on the north at several points have resulted in the occupation by the Allies of ground won from them in the initial onslaught and the rectification of their lines, while a stiffening of the front along the Piave River has made impossible, for the time being, at least, further fording of the stream by the enemy.

Hard fighting still is in progress, however, with the Austrians bringing the strongest kind of pressure to bear against the Allied armies on both northern and eastern parts of the battlefield in an endeavor to reach the lines and gain access in force to the plains.

The strokes of the enemy are particularly violent on the Montello Plateau, the highest bit of ground along the middle reaches of the Piave, the capture of which would give him command of the roads leading through Treviso to Venice and a fair way westward through the province of Treviso. The Italians are inflicting heavy casualties on the troops of Emperor Charles which crossed the river at this point.

To the south from St. Andrea to Fossalata, respectively the northern and southern flanks of the famous Zenson loop, where last year the Austrians effected a crossing of the Piave, only later to be driven back with sanguinary losses, and from Fossalata to San Dona di Piave the fighting also is of a violent character, with the Italians heroically and successfully, according to the Rome War Office, holding the line of the river.

Between Candelo and the Zenson loop, where the Austrians crossed the Piave in Saturday's fighting, the Italians have driven them back to the river bank and are endeavoring to push them across the stream. The latest Austrian official communication records the gain of additional ground west of San Dona di Piave and the capture of the village of Capo Sile, on the eastern edge of the Lagoon region in the province of Venetia and about 20 miles from the City of Venice itself.

Thus far the Italians, British and French troops have made prisoners of more than 4,500 Austrians, while the Austrian War Office asserts that 12,000 prisoners have been taken by the Austrians.

Italy's Greatest Battle

Last night a semi-official statement was given to the press which says, in part:

"The battle now being fought from the Asiago Plateau to the sea is not a struggle that interests one front or one army, but is the greatest battle Italy has ever fought."

"It is the battle of all of its armies, and of the whole nation, against all the forces of the ancient enemy."

"Of the 92 divisions which form the mobilized forces of Austria-Hungary 71 have been identified. It is affirmed that these 71 divisions, though they constitute numerically three-quarters of the mobilized forces, represent qualitatively the whole of the really efficient troops that Austria-Hungary possesses."

Germany, the statement says, furnished her ally with cannon, trench mortars and war material of every description. Documents found on prisoners show the enemy expected to carry the battle swiftly from the trenches into the open, so as to bring about a war of movement, and that the Austrian troops were told they would find a rich and fertile country at their feet once the fortified zone of defense was overrun.

LONG AUTO TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bond and Mr. and Mrs. James L. Menough, all of York, returned Friday evening from an extended automobile trip through Southern states. The party left there six weeks ago and in the entire journey covered approximately 4,000 miles. They went as far South as Jacksonville, Fla., and returned home through Alabama, the eastern part of Tennessee, and the western part of Virginia, by way of White Sulphur Springs and Hot Springs, Va. At Atlanta, Ga., and Chattanooga, Tenn., they saw the interned Germans who were on board ships in ports of this country at the time of the declaration of war.

MAY INVOLVE ARMY MEN

Indictments Brought in Washington and Raids are Made upon Many Manufacturers' Offices.

Washington, June 18—A nationwide conspiracy between manufacturers and contractors' agents in Washington to solicit government war orders under an agreement to pay commissions illegally to the agents was disclosed yesterday by the Department of Justice.

Simultaneously with the announcement raids were made on hundreds of manufacturers' business offices throughout the United States in search of papers showing the scope of the illegal practice, and four business men were indicted in Washington on charges of acting as contingent fee agents.

Even before the results of the raid were fully reported here, officials indicated they had evidence that scores, perhaps hundreds of contracts have been made with manufacturers who were under pledge to turn over to contract commission agents in Washington, New York, and elsewhere, a percentage of their profits.

Claimed To Have "Pull"

Officials said the manufacturers were led to enter the agreements by assurances of the agents that they had special influence with Army officers or others in charge of letting contracts, and under threat to use that influence against the manufacturers. Evidence was said to have been secured that some of the agents already have made their thousands in commission fees.

This development led to investigation of the relations between certain army officers and these agents, and although there is no definite indication that these officers are knowingly involved in the conspiracies, Secretary Baker is making a thorough investigation in co-operation with the Department of Justice, and authorized the statement that he would go to the bottom of any conspicuous cases. Secretary Daniels also is keeping in close touch with the investigation, and the whole situation has been called to the attention of President Wilson and his cabinet.

The commission agents guilty of these practices will be prosecuted under conspiracy statutes and all contracts made by them or with their aid are subject to annulment by the government.

Nationwide Trap Sprung

Ramifications of the plot may lead shortly to other disclosures as sensational as those of yesterday. These may develop as reports trickle in from the dramatic raids prearranged for four o'clock yesterday afternoon, Eastern time, when Secret agents of the Department of Justice's Bureau of Investigation entered offices of several hundred business firms, showed their badges of authority and spent several hours going through letter files searching for documents which might shed light on contingent fee contracts. Eleven offices in Washington were raided at the same time, and a great mass of papers of contract agents was carried away.

Four Indicted

At almost the same hour that the raids were made a federal grand jury in Washington returned indictments charging conspiracy to obtain contracts under the illegal contingent fee plan against John Fleming, former water commissioner of Boston; John T. Cavanaugh, Eugene Sullivan and Joseph Kohn, all of Boston. These men, it is charged, worked together in a mysterious involved manner, persuading manufacturers to pay them commissions on contracts they obtained, reporting that they had special influence with certain unnamed army officers, and in some cases actually procuring the contracts and receiving their fees.

It was officially announced that these men were detected in their negotiations with E. A. Bittan, president of the Quaker City Rain Coat Company, Philadelphia, who worked with government agents in gathering evidence against them. They were arrested in Washington recently, and are now at liberty under bond.

Korean Woman Status.

In Korea women occupy a place in society which has no parallel elsewhere in the Orient. They are both better and worse off than in China or India or Japan—better off because there are more fields open to them, worse because they are overworked, often ill-treated, and until recently were actually enslaved.

Her Hubby Also Had Pen Name.

"Rudley Jones?" Why, that's my husband's pen name," said the lady of the house. "Altho' it funny," marvelled the cook. "My husband has one, too. Up in the pen they call him 'Glycerin George.'"—Judge.

YORK COUNTY

WILL REPLACE TENTS

Work has been begun on the foundation of the new exhibition building that is being erected by the Stewartstown Agricultural society. The building, which will consist of a main building 30 by 90 feet, is to take the place of tents. The association having heretofore erected a main or trades display building, and a poultry building was built in 1915. The foundation, which will be of concrete, is in charge of Jerry Gibbs. The lumber for the weather-boarding and sheeting is on the grounds and Joseph Zeigler will have charge of the carpenter work.

PASTOR CHOSEN

Rev. B. F. Koutz, formerly of the Susquehanna synod, of the Lutheran church, has been transferred by request to the East Pennsylvania synod, and has accepted a call to the Emmanuel Lutheran church, York. The pulpit has been empty since the resignation of Rev. Joseph H. Keller. Rev. Mr. Koutz has been occupying the pulpit at this church for several months, but was only formerly elected by the congregation Sunday.

WILL CONSIDER REPAIRS

An adjourned meeting of the York County board of directors of the poor, which was to be held at the almshouse, next Thursday at 9 a. m., for the purpose of meeting committees of the State Board of Charities, and the York Chamber of Commerce, to discuss proposed remodeling of the poor farm buildings, will not take place it is stated. Secretary Altland, of the board, and County Controller Fred S. Bartenschlager, received letters from an official of the state board of charities, in which it is stated that the committee of the board will not go to York, next Thursday, as an important meeting of the board is to be held in Philadelphia, on that day. It is expected that the committee of the York Chamber of Commerce, which has been instructed to protest to the directors of the poor, against remodeling the York county almshouse, will attend the meeting in Philadelphia. The directors of the poor have been asked to attend the meeting.

CUMBERLAND CO.

PRESENT BUST TO LIBRARY

The gift of a fine bust of George Washington to the High School by the members of the class of 1893 was the feature of the largest meeting of the Carlisle High School Alumni Association in recent years which was held in Mentzer Hall. Purple and gold, the colors of the class of 1918, were used to decorate the hall, but the Stars and Stripes were predominant.

TO PURCHASE MOTOR TRUCK

A move to purchase a $6,000 fire apparatus for the West Shore, inaugurated by the West Shore Firemen's Union at a meeting Monday evening, is being favored by a majority of residents in all West Shore towns. The districts to be benefited by this improvement are New Cumberland, Lemoyne, Camp Hill, Wormleysburg, West Fairview, Midway and Enola.

Businessmen in all the towns are heartily in favor of the move and are taking steps to start campaigns for funds, although the fire companies of the various towns have charge of their respective districts. The purchase of the apparatus will mean a contribution of funds from each district.

ATTACKED BY HIGHWAYMAN

While walking along the Northern Central railroad tracks at New Cumberland Wednesday evening William Mulhern, a track repairman, was struck on the head with a hatchet by an unknown highwayman and robbed of $50.

Mulhern was found a few minutes later by a passerby and taken to the office of Dr. S. A. Kirkpatrick, where it was found that he had a badly lacerated scalp.

The attack occurred in a dark spot along the tracks when Mulhern was on his way to his home. After knocking him down the highwayman took $50 from Mulhern's pocket and fled up the tracks.

PLAN CHILD WELFARE WORK

The Child Welfare work for Cumberland County under the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense was successfully launched at the home of the chairman, Miss Mary Bosler, Carlisle.

Almost every county division was represented and the members of the committee were out in full force. Dr. Baschore, a Cumberland County physician, was present and offered many suggestions.

Enthusiastic preparations were made for a Baby Saving Show as the first move. The State will lend its exhibits and the physicians of the county will assist in every possible way. With the co-operation of all who are interested in this nation-wide movement to save the babies it must needs be a success.

AWFUL GERMAN THREATS

Will Make the Marrow in Wilson's Blood Run Cold.

Washington, June 18—Boasting and threatening comment of the German newspapers on the appearance of submarines off the American coast is summarized in a statement issued by the State Department. One paper, not named in the summary, declared the present raids were but the beginning and added:

"There will be scenes in the United States that will make the marrow in Wilson's bones run cold."

Another said: "The Americans are already trembling in fear of German air attacks, and the time may not be far distant when American ports will be bombarded."

"Referring to the 'submarine obstruction to transportation of American troops to France,' the German editors failed to mention the character of vessels attacked by the raiders or the fact that the movement of troop convoys has not been interfered with in the slightest degree by the U-boats.

Useful Electric Lantern.

Among the numerous electric lanterns is a mechanical one, standing about a foot high, that provides its own current. A spring motor, wound up like a clock, drives a small generator, and this supplies current for a lamp bulb of 12-candle power. The motor, generator and governor are contained in a base six by eight inches in size. Such a lantern is useful for the camp, the farm, or other place, and can be carried about in all kinds of weather.

WANT DRAFTEES ON NEW CALLS

Special Service on Voluntary Induction for Men with Some Training.

Adams County draft headquarters received notice this morning of calls for white men who are within the draft age limits and who are graduates of grammar schools to undergo special training to fit them for army service at the front and behind the lines. The men are expected to have had experience along mechanical lines and some aptitude for mechanical work. These calls are being sent to local boards for voluntary induction. The calls are as follows, all men to report July 1:—

No. 730 for men to go to Delaware College, Newark, Del., for special training as bench wood-workers, electricians, radio operators, mechanics and gas engine men.

No. 731 for 206 men to go to Polish National Alliance College, Cambridge Springs, Pa., for training as auto mechanics, carpenters, gunsmiths, machinists and pattern makers.

No. 751 for 226 men to report at Spring Garden Institute, Philadelphia, for training as woodworkers, auto mechanics and electricians.

No. 762 for 330 men to go to University of Pittsburgh for instruction as sheet metal workers and auto mechanics.

Word has been received that by special permission calls have been opened for men within the draft age to entering the following:—
Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, wagonmakers, joiners and interior carpenters, for engineers.
Camp Lee, Virginia, veterinarians and men experienced in handling horses; men qualified for general military service.

Character Revealed by Laugh.

The leopard cannot change his spots, nor the laugher his laugh. A laugh is said to be as characteristic of a person as his nose or the color of his eyes. No polish or educational veneer can alter the laugh much in quality and tone, although it may soften it. Yet, even then, in an unguarded moment the old laugh rings or cackles, or explodes, and the laugher is given away.

Purifier Water.

An enterprising company in California has found that water which is distasteful because of sulphur gas can be purified by blowing the gas out of it. The water is forced to escape from the reservoir through inch holes into a long trough. It also falls over two shelves of laths. The process atomizes the water and with the help of a slight breeze entirely removes the sulphur taste.

Stage Women's War Relief Has Various Lines of Endeavor for the Soldiers.

Tuesday afternoon from three to five, Mrs. S. F. Snyder and Miss Marguerite Hearsey entertained a group of High School girls on the campus near Stevens Hall. Miss Hearsey introduced H. T. Seerist, who has recently come to Gettysburg as local representative of the War-time Commission of the National Health and Recreation Association of America, the Federal Commission on Training Camp Activities.

Mr. Seerist spoke a few minutes on the need for the finest environment possible for our men who are in training camps. He emphasized the thought that every one in Gettysburg should do everything possible to send our men to France splendidly equipped in every way.

D. G. Price, who was Mr. Seerist's predecessor last summer, then spoke on the value of group recreation, particularly as a means of health building. He told of the fine athletic activities of girls' clubs in other places, and spoke so enthusiastically that the girls who listened were eager to try at once some of his suggestions.

The real hostess of the afternoon was Miss Barbara Lamond, who, although only six months old, acted very well her part of a Belgian baby. Her mother, carrying a Belgian flag, received for her a package of clothing sent from America, and the baby soon appeared dressed in her new clothes.

After the serving of strictly Hoover refreshments of war cookies and ice water, it was decided to form a club of high school girls, to meet weekly. The name chosen was the Jeanne d'Arc Club, and the purpose is a patriotic one. The members will do everything possible to develop their bodies by vigorous exercise in the form of various games, and will do what they can to aid in the war-relief work for the Belgian babies. They will also co-operate to make Gettysburg the finest possible community for a training camp, in living up to their Patriotic League pledge.

Miss Katherine Reaser and Miss Gladys Weikert were nominated as chairman and secretary until the election of officers at the first regular meeting, to be held Wednesday, June 27th, at three o'clock, at Stevens Hall.

Take a Sunshine Tablet for Thy Stomach's Sake

There never was such a marvelous prescription for stomach distress and indigestion as Mi-o-na.

No doctor ever wrote a better one; it's doubtful if any doctor ever will; it's so good that People's Drug Store says money back if it doesn't relieve.

A woman in Maine calls Mi-o-na the sunshine prescription because she has seen so many sour, miserable, aggravating dyspepsies turned into happy, cheerful, sweet human beings in a few days by taking Mi-o-na.

The stomach is responsible for three-fourths of the nervousness and half the misery of the world. A woman can have a first-class stomach and yet be miserable if she has a husband who is a nervous dyspeptic.

If you have indigestion, belching of gas, heaviness after eating, drowsy sensation after eating, sour stomach or any miserable stomach disturbance the prescription called Mi-o-na will put you right, and bring sunshine into your life in a week.

A large box of Mi-o-na tablets cost only 60 cents at People's Drug Store and by leading druggists everywhere. They are small and easy to swallow.

The Stage Women's War Relief, while preparing supplies for the Red Cross and engaging in other lines of general work to help along war projects, is providing entertainment in this country and overseas for our men in uniform.

"The Stage Women's War Relief is not only sending units for the Overseas League as fast as it can get them ready," says the latest report, "but it is conducting a booking office from which camps, hospitals, and Y. M. C. A. huts are supplied with entertainments, all services being volunteered by the men and women of the theatrical profession.

"The organization is also running a Sunday night theater free for men in uniform. These entertainments began at the Playhouse, which was given to the Stage Women's War Relief by Miss Grace George, through the courtesy of Mr. William A. Brady and Mr. A. O. Brown.

"Aside from the vaudeville performances, which artists of the United Booking Offices have so generously contributed, a number of plays have been given, and Miss George is asking New York managers to take turns in supplying this Sunday night attraction."

Have You a Manure Pile?

If you have, get it out on your fields where it will do some good. No, not with a wagon. You waste a full third of it if you do it that way, and you have a hard, dirty, disagreeable job besides. The easy way is the paying way. Get a Low Corn King spreader that will tear the manure into small pieces, discharge its load in four to seven minutes, and spread it in an even coat over the entire surface of the ground. That's the way to use stable manure. Then you can depend upon an increase of crop yields without having to plant more acreage than you can care for. Look at present prices of farm produce. Raise all you can. Buy and use a

Low Corn King Manure Spreader

Wheels just the right distance apart, and spread wide enough to top dress three rows of corn at once. Three sizes—small, medium and large. All narrow boxes. All steel frames with working parts of the spreader securely attached to the frame. Turns short. Drive from both rear wheels. Return apron driven by worm gear which insures even spreading up hill and down. Pull comes straight on steel frame. Solid two-inch rear axle working in roller bearings carries seventy five per cent of the load. All-steel beater cannot warp, shrink, or rot. Built up to International Harvester standards of quality in every respect.

Buy a Corn King spreader and use it. The increased yield from a few acres will pay for your spreader this year. Come in and place your order now.

Potato Croquettes

Two cups mashed potatoes seasoned with pinch of salt, pepper, a little nutmeg and some chopped parsley. Add tablespoon Mazola. Beat whites of two eggs and mix all together thoroughly. Form into croquettes, dip in the yolk of the egg—roll in cracker crumbs and fry quickly in deep Mazola.

If the price of Mazola were twice what it is—it would not make cooking more delicious. Yet Mazola is more economical than butter and lard because it goes farther.

WHAT a boon to the housewives of America is this pure, wholesome oil pressed from the heart of Indian Corn!

Makes such wonderfully light and flaky pastries—such delicious and easily digested fried dishes—such smooth and savory salad dressings.

And Mazola not only gives splendid quality—it is much more economical than butter, lard, suet and olive oil. Can be used over and over again as it never carries taste or odor from one food to another—even fish or onions.

For sale in pints, quarts, half gallons and gallons. For greater economy buy the large sizes.

There is a valuable Cook Book for Mazola users. It shows you how to fry, sauté, make dressings and consume more delicious, make light digestible pastry. Should be in every home. Send for it or ask your grocer. FREE.
